This is a copy of an email message that I will send home this afternoon:

Dear Parents,

The date of our class's Shakespeare performance will be Tuesday, June 16 (7:15 P.M., in the media center; students should arrive between 6:45 and 7:00 P.M.).

The 16th was the date that accommodated the greatest number of families. Any students who are unable to make the evening performance on the 16th will still play their role during the dress rehearsal, which will take place during the school day the week before, and which will be performed for the other fifth-grade classes. The date of that dress rehearsal has yet to be determined. When the date and time of the dress rehearsal have been determined, I will notify all parents, and parents who cannot make the evening performance will be welcome to attend the dress rehearsal if they wish.

Just a final note: this is a classroom event, and all parents, students, and family in our class are invited and welcome to attend the performance, regardless of whether or not your child has chosen to participate in the play. I hope to see you there!

*Warm regards,
Peter McGee*
